The last week of August.
The ferry was late,
the path was steep, and the cat had come down to meet her.
Biscuit! Where's Grandpa?
Come on, you old thing. Talk to me.
Grandpa? Your radio cable goes under the desk, right?

Found it.
PURRRR

By nine the radio was talking again: gale from the west, small boats stay in.
Lamp's lit. Nobody's going in the water tonight.
Except the cat. He's sulking on the stairs.
